

About Founder

Dr. LaVon Williams is the founder of The Men of the Tenth Inc. and is a higher education consultant and adjunct professor. He created The Men of the Tenth Inc. to enrich the lives of students by using history and hip-hop to educate students and professionals on how to achieve their dreams.

Over the passed 18 years LaVon has encouraged thousands of students and professionals to design a plan of action to guide them toward fulfilling their dreams. He also encourages individuals to become entrepreneurs and leaders within their community by highlighting the success of historical figures throughout the world.

Why Us?

By the end of our workshop you will able to:

- Analyze how a diverse group of leaders and their leadership styles impact change in society.
- Identify your own leadership characteristics to discover personal and meaningful goals.
- Recognize contributions made to society by people from various nations and cultures.

"The final product of our training must be neither a psychologist nor a brickmason, but a man."

-W.E.B. Dubois

The Men of the Tenth Inc., is a non-profit organization that provides leadership development for students and professionals in the 21st century. The organization was founded and influenced by the scholarship of W.E.B. Dubois' groundbreaking article, The Talented Tenth. According to Dubois, the talented tenth are developed by education, ability, and character to "guide the mass away from contamination and death of the worst." Our organization transforms men to become urban graduates, group leaders, and individuals that set the ideals of a community and social movement.

The challenges of today needs leader's that are knowledgeable and able to think critically. Currently, there are too many leaders that create dissonance in school, at work, and in their community. The purpose of The Men of the Tenth Inc. is to train a new generation of leaders that will resonate and create revolutionary change. The organization trains students and professionals to develop a leadership repertoire by using history, hip-hop, sports, and entertainment.

Individuals that participate in The Men of the Tenth Inc. workshops will be able to identify their own leadership characteristics, learn distinctive leadership styles, and how to impact change in society. Participants create a leadership platform that is self-empowering and enables them to make wise choices about what to keep doing and what to change.
